The Wheelchair Football Association CIO.

2. National location of principal office

The CIO must have a principal office in England or Wales. The principal office of the CIO is in England.

3. Object (s)

The objects of the WFA CIO are to provide or assist in the provision of facilities for physical recreation, in particular the sport of Wheelchair Football, for the benefit of all disabled persons and in particular to provide facilities for non-competitive and competitive sport to improve the conditions of life of such persons and assist in their integration into society.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the WFA CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with [section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005] and [section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008]

4. Powers

The WFA CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objectives or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the WFA CIO's powers include power to:

- Borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The WFA CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;
- Buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

- employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the WFA CIO. The WFA CIO may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses;
- deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the WFA CIO to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

5. Application of income and property

1. The income and property of the WFA CIO must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objectives.
 - a. A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the WFA CIO or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by them when acting on behalf of the WFA CIO.
 - b. A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the WFA CIO's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
2. None of the income or property of the WFA CIO may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the WFA CIO. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
 - a. a benefit from the WFA CIO as a beneficiary of the WFA CIO;
 - b. reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the WFA CIO.
3. Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

1. General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- a. buy or receive any goods or services from the WFA CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

- b. sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the WFA CIO;
- c. be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the WFA CIO;
- d. receive any other financial benefit from the WFA CIO;

Unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission (“the Commission”). In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

7. Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

- a. A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the WFA CIO as a beneficiary of the WFA CIO provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- b. A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the WFA CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- c. Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the WFA CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the WFA CIO by the charity trustee or connected person.
- d. A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the WFA CIO at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- e. A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the WFA CIO. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- f. A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the WFA CIO on the same terms as members of the public

8. Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The WFA CIO and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- a. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the WFA CIO and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).
- b. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

- c. The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the WFA CIO to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- d. The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with them or it with regard to the supply of goods to the WFA CIO.
- e. The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- f. The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.
- g. A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

8. In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

“the WFA CIO” includes any company in which the WFA CIO:

Absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between their duty to act solely in the interests of the WFA CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest). Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter

10. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the WFA CIO if it is wound up

- a. If the WFA CIO is wound up, the members of the WFA CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.
- b. In sub-clause (1) of this clause “member” includes any person or organisation that was a member of the WFA CIO within 12 months before the commencement of the winding up.
- c. But subject to that, the members of the WFA CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets if it is wound up, and accordingly have no personal responsibility for the settlement of its debts and liabilities beyond the amount that they are liable to contribute.
